

ERASMUS MUNDUS – Action 1

ERASMUS MUNDUS offers a full time scholarship for excellent students – not only from Europe but from all over the world – who successfully applied for an ERASMUS MUNDUS Masters Course or an ERASMUS MUNDUS Joint Doctorate Programme.

ERASMUS MUNDUS Masters Courses (Action 1A):

- An ERASMUS MUNDUS Masters Course lasts between 1 – 2 years and a minimum of three European universities (EU or EEA) are actively involved.
- ERASMUS MUNDUS students need to study at least at two of the European universities and receive a double or a joint degree (either two individual diplomas or one joint diploma of both universities).
- Furthermore, it is possible for Third Country universities (non-EU or non-EEA) to participate in the ERASMUS MUNDUS Master's consortium, where ERASMUS MUNDUS students study during their study period. Internships in enterprises are possible, too.
- There are two categories of ERASMUS MUNDUS students:
 - Cat. A: Students from Third Countries who have lived less than 12 months in Europe in the last 5 years.
 - Cat. B: European students or students from Third Countries who have lived in Europe for more than 12 months in the last 5 years.
